

COME TO JERUSALEM

HOLY WEEK SCHEDULE

Sunday, March 28 – Sunday, April 4, 2010

HOLY TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Palm or Passion Sunday, March 28, 8am and 10 am

This liturgy begins with Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem on a road strewn with palms. Jesus' three-year journey ends with the tragedy & triumph of the Cross.

Holy Monday Eucharist, March 29, 7pm

An opportunity to gather in quiet meditation upon God's heritage of Presence and Promise to His People.

Tenebrae – Tuesday, March 30, 7pm

Derived from the Latin word for "darkness or shadows", this is a centuries- old liturgy of darkness overcoming the light...except the one inextinguishable Light: Jesus Christ.

Seder – Wednesday, March 31, 7pm

The Passover Seder is one of the most widely observed of all Jewish customs that celebrates the liberation of the Jews from slavery in Egypt over 3000 years ago. It is the basis of our Holy Eucharist today. Come join in a true Seder meal.

Must call ahead for reservation.

 Maundy Thursday Foot Washing & Eucharist, April 1, 7 pm

The commemoration of Jesus' institution of the Holy Eucharist, which was preceded by his washing his disciples feet as an example of servanthood to them. The humility of foot washing & the stripping of the altar prepare us for Good Friday.

Good Friday, April 2

Liturgy for Good Friday – Noon to 1 pm
"Way of The Cross" (Re-enactment of the Passion) - 7 pm

Rite of Reconciliation (Confession) "All may, some should, none must." This is the oft quoted rubric which best explains the Anglican/Episcopalian attitude toward private confession. If you are burdened, alienated, dis-eased in the spirit, then perhaps this cleansing of the spirit is for you. Call for an appointment.

Liturgy for Holy Saturday, April 3, Noon

Jesus is in the tomb. We wait.
This is a quiet service for contemplation and adoration.

 Easter Sunday – April 4, 8am and 10am

The Lord is Risen!! Alleluia!!
The truth, center and being of Christianity.

Nursery Provided for these Services
